Coming together is beginning;
Keeping together is progress;
Working together is success;

Co-curricular activities not only groom the inherent talent of the child but also give them an extra edge and confidence to move ahead in the competitive world. Our school provides ample opportunities to nurture such talents.

Our class's report presents a panoramic view of the activities progress and development made by the students and keeps a critical eye open to our short comings and thus we continue to march towards excellence.

With the great zeal, the students participated in a variety of activities. In English handwriting competition Dhruv Banger, Karan Verma, Kajal Sharma and Smarth Verma were among the best ten students. In Hindi Handwriting Competition Dhruv Banger, Karan Verma, Kajal Sharma and Reeya Bansal were among best ten students.

Inter House Competitions were organized to groom their talents and to imbibe discipline and team spirit. Green House came first in Cricket tournament. Lakshay Sangwan was the captain of the team and Sangram Singh Rathore was the Vice Captain. Yellow House came first in the football match. Dhruv Banger and Satvik Mehilla were among the team members.

Education without sports cannot produce students capable of tackling the challenges of the fast paced world. The children had the perfect opportunity to showcase their Sportsman spirit during the annual Sports meet. Students of class V H participated in all events with great enthusiasm and brought laurels to the class. The boys relay team consisting of Lakshay Sangwan, Arjun Aggrawal, Aakash Yadav and Sahil Kumar grabbed the second position in 4x50 mtrs Relay. Lakshay Sangwan bagged the third position in 200m and 400m race. Arjun Aggarwal bagged the second position in long jump and third position in 100m race.

Success is not final, failure is not fatal, it is the courage to continue that counts. Students were equally enthusiastic about exhibiting their talents in G.K Quiz competition. They grabbed the first position. The team comprising of Tushar Mittal, Dhruv Banger, Abhishek Sharma, Sangram Singh Rathore, Arjun Aggrawal and Aman Kumar. The students of class Vth H not only made their parents proud but also the entire class and School by their outstanding achievements.

"Contentment over our achievements has never been our motto but only continuous and dedicated efforts towards excellence."
