

Excellent Performance of OPJMSians in Reflection 2009

A renowned City Montessori School, Lucknow organized Reflections 2009 – An International Youth Festival on History and Civics from 11th August to 14th August 2009 wherein fifty six national and international schools of repute participated in various competitive events.

OPJMS students participated in six events which include Elocution (Senior Level), Speech (Junior and Senior Levels), Collage Making (Junior and Senior Levels) and Quiz at senior level. Outflanking the students of as many as fifty six schools, Shubhangi Mahajan of class X-C swept boards by clinching the second position in the Elocution. Insia and Purnima Yadav of class IX won a Consolation Prize in Collage Making Competition at Senior Level.

Students were escorted by Mr N S Sehrwat and Mrs Ansuya Sharma. The group visited a number of historical monuments and sights at Lucknow.

