

ALL ARE EQUAL
THE WORLD OF HUMANS

All are equal,
No one is slave.
Then the world will rise,
And no one to blame.

The power of our heart
Will save us from stare,
In the world then
Everything would be fair.

You may see here,
Or you may see there,
There will be happiness
Almost everywhere.

Everyone will love
Everyone will care
Even two enemies
Will sit on a single chair.

Kind and peaceful
Everyone will become.
Slowly and slowly
Close to each other they will come.

Each person will play
Each person will pray
O My God! Tell me.
Will this world really stay?

By:
Soham
Class X-E (2010-11)
OP Jindal Modern School
Hisar, Haryana, India